

"Could we as humans exist without love? Whatever we may believe God to be, the Bible tells us "God is Love". Added to that, the original Old Testament was written in Hebrew, which didn't make use of vowels and wrote God's name as "JHWH" - pronounce this. It's the sound of a breath. If God is love, and His Name originally recreated the sound of a breath, then does that not entail that love exists in each breath we release, and that love is the basic action necessary for life to continue?" says Cicatrixx, the 22 year old Amsterdam-born dynamite who has over 2.5 million song plays (on social media), over 65,000 fans on social media and rubbed shoulders with the guy who engineered Jay-Z's albums among others.
